Dear Parents,

The safety and security of our students and staff are a top priority in our school district. Recently, there have been several incidents where students have brought plastic BB guns or toy gun replicas to school to show other students. In one case, a student was injured when the BB gun discharged. These toy guns have reportedly been purchased here in our community or at other venues. The guns include removable clips that house plastic pellets, and may be mistaken for a "real" gun by staff, security guards, law enforcement, or other individuals. Possession of these items creates a danger to both the students and others.

The East Orange School District has a "Zero Tolerance Policy" regarding student possession of any gun, including replicas or toy guns on school property, school buses, or school sponsored events. Pursuant to the policy and state law, appropriate action, including confiscation of the item, suspension, removal from school for a year, or other action must be taken against any student found in possession of such items. Additionally on August 10th, the East Orange City Council passed Ordinance No. 41 banning the sale of realistic looking toy guns.

We request your assistance in helping keep our students and schools safe. Please talk with your children about the dangers of possessing BB guns and toy gun replicas, defined as weapons under district policy and state law, and the consequences of bringing these items to school. Also, please warn your children not to touch or pick up anything that looks like a gun. In the upcoming weeks, we will conduct prevention discussions in your children's classes. We encourage you to work collaboratively and cooperatively with the East Orange Board of Education, city officials, community leaders, law enforcement and other parents to help enforce Ordinance No. 41 and District's "Zero Tolerance Policy".

If you have questions, please feel free to contact me or your building principal.

Yours Truly,

Dr. Gloria Scott
Superintendent of Schools

EO ban on realistic-looking toy guns now in effect

By: Chris Sykes - Staff Writer

EAST ORANGE, NJ — The first day of classes for East Orange public schools began Tuesday, Sept. 8, with a guns, courtesy of 3rd Ward Councilman and City Council Vice President Ted Green, Mayor Lester Taylor, B and police Chief William Robinson.

Leneus said Ordinance No. 41, dealing with the sale of realistic looking toy guns, was the result of a collabor government and the community, saying “myself, the board, the district — we’ve been in nonstop meetings.”

“Last year, we had a rash of incidents of suspensions, due to toy guns being brought into the schools, and pa weapon or perceived weapon brought into schools can cause suspensions,” Leneus said Tuesday, Sept. 8, as Hughes Elementary School to welcome parents and children back for the start of a new school year.

“Once the police officers mentioned it, Ted Green took that and created the ordinance and really pushed it a whole group together — superintendent, council people and activists — and, together, we just brainstormed and he took it and has championed the effort and now I’m glad to see that it got pushed through, the first pl

“We talk on a weekly basis because, at the end of the day, the mayor talks about making East Orange a desti performing subpar,” Leneus said. “So we are, as a district, pushing our administrators and they’re accepting for the past few years, but I know that they’re going to exceed even further.”

Green said he is looking forward to the 2015-2016 school year, and that so many in East Orange are doing tl ordinance in place doesn’t mean that job is finished.

“It’s a new law, but I have to thank our mayor for having input in it; the Board of Education; our police Chie ordinance and gave the OK to it,” Green said on Tuesday, Sept. 8. “Now we do have something in place wher “We’re not just going to put the legislation out there and there’s no monitoring. So we want to go down to th those types of toy guns, so we won’t have those types of incidents in East Orange.”

Green sponsored Ordinance No. 41, which passed on second reading Monday, Aug. 10, at the City Council’s Ward Councilwoman Andrea McPhatter abstaining and 4th Ward Councilwoman Sharon Fields absent.

Green said the next step is to take the battle against realistic toy guns into the streets and stores, where they public safety problems.

“We can’t control it all over and outside, but we did send correspondence to Mayor Ras Baraka, Mayor Tony Green said. “We also sent letters to all the legislators — Sheila Oliver, Nia Gill, Tom Giblin and Sen. Ron Ric out, in terms of how we can monitor stores selling those types of look-alike guns, so that way we can at least communities and outside the community, to help prevent an accident.”
